About Hong Kong Adventure Corps

The Hong Kong Adventure Corps was set up in 1995 as the direct successor of the Junior Leaders Corps of The Royal Hong Kong Regiment (The Volunteers). The Corps is now a registered charity organization and also one of the eleven uniformed youth groups in Hong Kong. T

The Corps aims at helping young people aged between 11 and 18 to develop their character and leadership skills through training which promotes qualities of responsibility, self-reliance, resourcefulness, endurance, perseverance and a sense of service to the community.

By this event, the Corps targets to promote outdoor activities, encourage Hong Kong people to care about the nature and participate more outdoor campaigns.

Aim of Fundraising

The fund raised through this event will be used on:

- Subsidize youth leadership training programs and young people who have financial problem in joining our adventure and leadership training
- Support the Corps in expansion, development, 2 training camps' maintenance and all training facilities.

Award

To encourage more people to donate, we specially prepare the following awards as support:
